Non- Partisan Italian American PAC Endorses Democrat Jon Kaiman for North Hempstead Town Supervisor

Democrat Jon Kaiman earned the endorsement of the Italian American Political Action Committee of New York (“I AM PAC”) as he seeks election to return as Supervisor of the Town of North Hempstead. I AM PAC is a non-partisan political action committee, registered and operating in the State of New York, whose founders, officers and members, representing a broad spectrum of political philosophies, identifies and supports “candidates for political office, or incumbents, whose actions will be sensitive to, and respective of, the interests and well-being of the Italian American community throughout the State of New York.”

“We believe that you are the kind of individual who embodies the type of leadership our organization supports,” wrote I AM PAC President James C. Lisa, Vice President Robert Fonti, 1st VP Jerry D’Amato and Board Member Gina Coletti to Democrat Jon Kaiman. “Your appreciation of your own heritage, as well as other cultures, demonstrates your ability to respect traditions while moving forward with a vision for the future.” The endorsement expresses the full support of I AM PAC and the thousands of Italian Americans behind it.

In his effort to return as North Hempstead Town Supervisor, Democrat Jon Kaiman leads a North Hempstead Town Democrat ticket that includes: current Town Council Member Veronica Lurvey for Receiver of Taxes, Town Council Members Mariann Dalimonte and Peter Zuckerman and Town Council candidate Christine Liu.
