NYS Court Officers Endorse Democrat Jon Kaiman for North Hempstead Town Supervisor

Democrat Jon Kaiman received significant support from a statewide law enforcement union as he seeks election to return as Supervisor of the Town of North Hempstead. The New York State Court Officers Association (“NYSCOA”), which proudly represents dedicated men and women Court Officers charged with providing security services and maintaining order within court facilities statewide, today (Tuesday, October 10, 2023) endorsed Democrat Jon Kaiman.

“Democrat Jon Kaiman understands foremost the imperative to keep our communities safe,” stated NYSCOA President Dennis Quirk. “He understands the need for town, county, state and federal cooperation on public safety, including the plague of gun violence. He knows how to bring everyone – concerned parents, students, survivors, educators, gun owners and concerned citizens – to the table to get guns off our streets.”

Kaiman previously received the special designation as a “Gun Sense Candidate” from Moms Demand Action, part of Everytown for Gun Safety, a grassroots movement of Americans demanding reasonable solutions to address our nation’s culture of gun violence.

In his effort to return as North Hempstead Town Supervisor, Democrat Jon Kaiman leads a North Hempstead Town Democrat ticket that includes: current Town Council Member Veronica Lurvey for Receiver of Taxes, Town Council Members Mariann Dalimonte and Peter Zuckerman and Town Council candidate Christine Liu.

Kaiman previous labor endorsements include The Long Island Federation of Labor (“LI Fed”), AFL-CIO, 1199SEIU United Healthcare Workers East (“1199SEIU”), the Laborers International Union of North America (“LiUNA”), The North Atlantic States Regional Council of Carpenters (“NASRCC”) and Local 338 RWDSU/UFCW.

Democrat Kaiman also earned endorsements from U.S. Senator Kirsten Gillibrand, New York State Comptroller Tom DiNapoli, former Member of Congress and Nassau County Executive Tom Suozzi, former Nassau County Executive Laura Curran, the New York League of Conservation Voters, the Sierra Club and the Planned Parenthood of Greater New York Political Action Committee.

Kaiman previously served as a District Court Judge, Town of North Hempstead Supervisor for five terms (2004-2013) including devising and implementing its 311 Call Center and Project Independence for its senior population, chair of the Nassau Interim Finance Authority (NIFA), led the state’s response to Superstorm Sandy and currently is Deputy County Executive in Suffolk where as co-chair of the Police Reform and Reimagine Task Force, Kaiman worked with police, community advocates, legislators, union leadership and the public to reach an overall consensus on how the Suffolk Police Department, the 12th largest police department in the country, could better serve the entire Suffolk County community, producing one of the most comprehensive police reform plans in the State of New York with buy-ins from the community and the PBA and chaired the county’s Opioid Task Force and co-chaired the Police Commissioner Search Committee. Also, Kaiman has launched Suffolk’s 311 Call Center, implemented a county-wide municipal service sharing program to reduce costs, created a Suffolk School recycling program and developed projects that address climate change, including electric vehicle charging stations and projects collecting power from wind and solar.
